

Introduction to Geographic Information Systems (GIS) Basics and Data Visualisation

Dates: 20 - 21 November 2024

Mode of Delivery: Face-to-Face

Course Fees: $1,700 (Before GST and available funding)

^ As low as $215.90 after maximum funding.

Scan to find out more:

 This course is part of the Professional Certificate (PC) in Applied Geographic Information Systems (GIS).*

What you will Learn

- Background on the development of Geographic Information Systems (GIS) and its applications in different fields.
- Introduction to GIS data, including the vector data model and raster data model.
- GIS mapping and geovisualisation methods using GIS software.

Who will Benefit

- Executives and professionals without a GIS background in both the private and public sectors.
- People who aspire to pursue a geospatial career, such as Geospatial Executives, GIS Engineers, GIS Consultants, GIS Mapping Specialists, Geospatial Specialists, and Geospatial Policymakers.